Third term for Buchan

Kwanalu CEO Sandy la Marque and Greytown farmer Andy Buchan, who has been re-elected as the president of KZN Agricultural Union, Kwanalu, for a third consecutive term. Unanimously elected by the Kwanalu board in October, Buchan is backed with 22 years of experience in the farming industry, having spent 15 of those years on his own farm, El Shammah, in Greytown, where he farms strawberries and kiwi fruit.
