Objective of control measure

2. The objective of this control measure is to prevent the spreading of foot and mouth disease virus through gatherings of live cloven-hoofed animals, including auctions, shows, speculators or any other activities for which live cloven hoofed animals are physically brought onto a piece of land or property from two or more places of origin in order for the animals to be distributed to two or more places of destination by means of sale, barter or any other purpose unless such live cloven-hoofed animals are kept on the piece of land or property for at least 28 days after arrival, without new introductions, and before being distributed to other places of land or property as proven by auditable records to be kept by the owner or manager of the land or the animals on the land.

Prohibition on the live auction of cloven hoofed animals in certain areas

- (1) Any activities for which live cloven hoofed animals are physically brought onto a piece of land or property from two or more places of origin in order for the animals to be distributed to two or more places of destination by means of sale, barter or any other purpose are prohibited in the whole of the Republic;
- (2) Any person who suspects or become aware of any activities for which live cloven hoofed animals are physically brought onto a piece of land or property from two or more places of origin in order for the animals to be distributed to two or more places of destination by means of sale, barter or any other purpose in the whole of the Republic must report this to the responsible State Veterinarian immediately.
- (3) Activities and pieces of land or property that ensure that live cloven-hoofed animals are kept on the piece of land or property for at least 28 days after arrival, without new introductions, and before being distributed to other pieces of land or property are exempted from 3.(1) provided the owner or manager of the land or the animals on the land keeps auditable records of the stay of each such animal for at least 5 years in the format as prescribed by the director.
